
Policy Document:

SSAGO Awards

Last updated: August 2020

Last reviewed: August 2020

1. Main Awards

- 1.1. The Cutlery Cup is designed to recognise an individual who has stood out through either:
 - 1.1.1. Their contribution to SSAGO at club (including Indie) and/or National level.
 - 1.1.2. Their contribution and commitment to Scouting or Guiding.
- 1.2. The Committee Colander is designed to recognise a group of people who have stood out through either:
 - 1.2.1. Their contribution to a SSAGO National Event or a club event.
 - 1.2.2. Their contribution to a SSAGO club.

2. Awarding

- 2.1. Where possible the awards should be awarded annually.
- 2.2. Where possible the winners of the awards should be decided during the National Executive Committee handover by both outgoing and incoming Exec committees.
- 2.3. Where possible the award winners should be awarded the trophy at the National SSAGO Ball.
- 2.4. If more than one candidate stands out, 'special recognition' can be awarded to other candidates.
- 2.5. If there is insufficient merit in the nominations received the awards will not be awarded.
- 2.6. Winners of the Cutlery Cup are bestowed Honorary Membership of SSAGO.

3. Nominations

- 3.1. Nominations must be open for at least three weeks.
- 3.2. Nominations must be submitted via the SSAGO website at <https://ssago.org/awards>.
- 3.3. Nominations must clearly state all that the candidates have done to deserve the award.
- 3.4. The awarding panel will not ask for further information on the candidates.

4. Candidature

- 4.1. Candidates for the Cutlery Cup must be a current member of SSAGO at the time of nomination as either an associate or full member.
- 4.2. Candidates for the Committee Colander must be a group of people containing at least one member of SSAGO who, at the time of nomination, is either an associate or full member.

5. Other Awards

- 5.1. Exceptional Service Honorary SSAGO Membership can also be conferred for life on an existing member of SSAGO.
 - 5.1.1. This is awarded at the discretion of the SSAGO Executive Committee.
 - 5.1.2. Any member can nominate a candidate at any time as long as the candidate is a current member of SSAGO as either an associate or full member.
 - 5.1.3. This award is not bound by the awarding and nominations procedures outlined in points 2 and 3.