Student Scout and Guide Organisation

Information For Young People

What Is SSAGO?

The Student Scout and Guide Organisation (SSAGO) brings together students who want to continue or begin their Scouting or Guiding journey while at university.

Open to all higher education students, you don't need to be a member of Scouts or Girlguiding to join a local club or become an independent member.

SSAGO & University

Joining SSAGO is a fantastic way to make the most of university life.

Meet like-minded people, enjoy camps, rallies, international trips and events, and make lifelong friendships along the way.

Want to volunteer while you study? SSAGO can help you connect with local Scout and Guide groups.

Starting university? Find many SSAGO Clubs at Freshers' Fairs — come and say hello!
